

HOTEL MANAGER APPOINTED FOR HOTEL INDIGO YORK SET TO OPEN THIS SUMMER

April 2015 - The Splendid Hospitality Group has appointed Mike Sweeting as Hotel Manager for its latest upscale boutique property - Hotel Indigo York - which is being built on the former Infinity motorcycle showrooms site in Walmgate, set to open summer 2015.

Hotel Indigo York will be themed to reflect York's chocolate heritage and to mark the imminent arrival of this new boutique hotel, York Cocoa House has created a special giant Easter egg.

Mike Sweeting comments: "I am delighted to be joining the Splendid Hospitality Group and launching Hotel Indigo York. I am currently recruiting for senior positions within the hotel and it is this team that will help me get the hotel ready to open this summer."

Stuart Bailey, CEO of Splendid Hospitality Group says: "We are delighted to have Mike on board, he is a real asset and his Yorkshire charm and love for what he does really shines through. I am confident that Mike and the team will create a fantastic experience for guests visiting the hotel, helping bring the history of York's chocolate heritage to life with the help of passionate chocolate makers such as York Cocoa House."

Yorkshire born and bred, Mike joins from Hampton by Hilton York where he was deputy General Manager. Mike's new role will be to manage the day to day running and operations of the hotel as well as creating new partnerships with other businesses and leisure attractions in York. He brings with him versatile skills in the hotel sector with a flair for customer service and a proven record of managing, developing and training teams.

When Mike is not rubbing shoulders with giant chocolate eggs or managing hotels he likes being a dad to his two children and keeps active by gardening, walking and cycling.

Hotel Indigo York is ideal for both business and leisure travellers and will also feature a restaurant and bar.
