SPLENDID HOSPITALITY GROUP INVEST £.5M in Holiday Inn Express London Gatwick – Crawley

Holiday Inn Express London Gatwick – Crawley has just completed a £.5m makeover. The six-month project has seen 73 of the hotel's spacious bedrooms and the conference room enjoy a stylish renovation to provide contemporary comfort for all its visitors.

With the recent work complete, hotel guests can now revel in fresh décor, power showers and individual air conditioning as they unwind on new Hypnos king-size beds to watch their favourite show on the flat-screen TV. Or brew a fresh tea or coffee and catch up on work at the smart desk, fitted with USB plug points and European sockets. Refreshed rooms start from as little as £54 per room per night, inclusive of free Wi-Fi and breakfast.

“We are a very popular hotel for guests travelling from Gatwick Airport or to central London and we are thrilled to offer our guests a fresh and even more comfortable stay,” says Prashant Vaid, General Manager for Holiday Inn Express London Gatwick – Crawley. “We want guests staying with us to relax and unwind with a great night’s sleep and a tasty breakfast - all at great value for money prices.”

The hotel’s meeting space has a capacity of up to 25 delegates theatre style and now boasts upgraded facilities, including new lighting and AV equipment. Meeting room rates start from just £85 and include complimentary tea, coffee, biscuits and mints. The refresh will also see Crawley caterers ‘Use Your Loaf’ partnering with the hotel.

They have created a new selection of buffet menus ideal for lunchtime meetings at the hotel. The renowned catering company, run by Sir Andrew Lloyd Webber’s ex group chef, is well known for its delicious home-made food using locally sourced British produce, and exceptional attention to detail.

Holiday Inn Express London Gatwick – Crawley, part of the Splendid Hospitality Group, is conveniently situated only 3.7 miles away from Gatwick Airport. The hotel offers easy access to London and Brighton and sits only 5 minutes away from Manor Royal, Crawley town centre and K2 sports and leisure centre.
