Hilton London Bankside appoints Director of Business Development

Hilton London Bankside has announced the appointment of Lisbeth Gernow as Director of Business Development.

Lisbeth previously held the same position at London Hilton Park Lane and brings with her an in-depth knowledge of the Hilton Hotel & Resorts brand as well as many years of expertise in business development and the hospitality sector.

“We are delighted to welcome Lisbeth to the hotel,” said General Manager James Clarke. “With her wealth of experience, Lisbeth is a wonderful addition to the team at Hilton Bankside and her arrival marks an exciting time for the hotel. We look forward to announcing new developments in the near future.”

Commenting on her new role Lisbeth stated: “I am excited to work in the vibrant are of Bankside and join the dynamic team at Hilton London Bankside. The hotel has enjoyed a successful opening year and I am looking forward to see how the business can be developed further from the ballroom to the beehives and beyond.”
