HOTEL INDIGO YORK CROWNED BEST HOTEL INDIGO IN EUROPE

Hotel Indigo York, part of the Splendid Hospitality Group, is celebrating after being crowned Hotel of the Year for the Hotel Indigo brand at the IHG Europe Hotel Stars Awards 2016, InterContinental Hotel Group's Europe-wide annual awards.

The coveted award celebrates outstanding performance in serving guests, owners, employees and the community. The judges sought the hotel that best brings the brand to life and that is a true ambassador for the brand.

Mike Sweeting, General Manager at Hotel Indigo York travelled to Berlin to accept the award and said: "This award recognises all the hard work and team effort we've put in this year. We're constantly striving to go the extra mile so guests can expect a consistently top notch experience when visiting our hotel and enjoy a true Yorkshire welcome. We will continue to work with our local partners to keep delivering outstanding travel experiences for York."

At the glittering awards ceremony, InterContinental Hotels Group (IHG) recognised hotels and individuals for their outstanding performance and contribution to the business as well as the local community in which they operate.

The winners are the best performing IHG hotels and individuals across Europe.

Karan Khanna, Vice President Operations UKI for IHQ said: "We are fully committed to supporting and developing our people; our hotels are only as good as the people working in them. We aim to provide the right environment, support and inspiration they need to fulfil their capability and these awards are a reflection of the fantastic talent we have working in our hotels across Europe."

Hotel Indigo York is located in York on Walmgate, a thriving foodie destination and the birthplace of York's chocolate making empire.

The intimate 101-room boutique hotel is within easy reach of some of the city's most famous attractions. Guests can also delight in all things Yorkshire at the No.88 Walmgate restaurant located on the ground floor of the hotel.
